Dear Madam/Sir:

Re: Gabor Lukacs v. Canadian Transportation Agency –
Federal Court of Appeal File No.: A-279-13

This is further to the letter to the Judicial Administrator of today's date from the Appellant, Gabor Lukacs, wherein he is requesting an adjournment of the hearing in the above-referenced matter due to the fact that the Agency sent him a document entitled "CTA NTA Bill C-14 Clause by Clause Analysis" under cover of an Affidavit from a Transport Canada employee (Affidavit of Natalie Ann Dolan, sworn January 27, 2014).

Given the Appellant's queries relating to the authorship of the clause by clause analysis of Bill C-14, the Agency requested that Transport Canada locate the document in its files. The document was just discovered recently by Transport Canada and was provided to the Agency yesterday. The Affidavit provided with the clause by clause document outlines the steps taken to locate it. The document was provided to the Appellant immediately upon receipt.

Both versions of the document will be available at the hearing for the Appellant and the Court.

The Agency does not intend to introduce new evidence at the hearing and is ready to proceed.

Yours very truly,

Simon-Pierre Lessard
